

Roche Bobois and Candice Berman Unveil Exclusive Artistic Collaboration

Roche Bobois South Africa is thrilled to announce an exciting and creative collaboration with the renowned Candice Berman Gallery, now showcased at the Johannesburg showroom. This exclusive collaboration offers a remarkable opportunity to explore the seamless blend of world-class interior design and fine art in an immersive setting.

Visitors to the Roche Bobois Johannesburg showroom can witness a stunning display of carefully curated artwork from the Candice Berman Gallery, expertly installed to complement the luxurious, contemporary design pieces on display. Each artwork has been meticulously selected to align with Roche Bobois' aesthetic of elegance, creativity and innovation. Whether you're an avid art collector or a design enthusiast, this collaboration brings a fresh perspective, showcasing the vision of talented artists in an environment that elevates both art and interior design.

At the heart of this collaboration is the Candice Berman Gallery, a premier destination in Johannesburg for fine art collectors worldwide since its establishment in 2013. The gallery known for its focus on the Expressionist Movement, offers a diverse collection ranging from painting and photography to sculpture and prints. With a commitment to exploring cultural and personal narratives, Candice Berman Gallery seeks to support the development of emerging and established artists, providing opportunities for their work to be shared with South Africa and beyond.

Join us at the Roche Bobois Johannesburg Showroom starting September 14th, where art and design converge in a stunning collaboration. Visit us from 9 AM to 5 PM on weekdays and 10 AM to 2 PM on weekends (Sundays closed) or to immerse yourself in this extraordinary experience. This collaboration is an exceptional opportunity to explore and appreciate the dw

www.roche-bobois.com/en-ZA/

